PROMINENT MIN-ISTER PASSES.

End Comes to the Useful Life of Eld. F. J. Barger Sunday Afternoon.

MANY ATTEND THE FUNERAL RITES.

The death of Eld. F. J. Barger, which occurred jast Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock was not a surprise to his wife, sons and friends, as it was known that he was in a very critical condition. It was known for some time that he was a afflicted with a chronic trouble, but the true nature of his trouble was not known until a 1ew weeks ago when he went to Louisville and was examied by a specialist, who informed him that it was not necessary to operate, and he returned A little later his immediate family was informed that he had a cancer. If we are informed correctly In the Celestial City it was near the neck of the bladder. Mr. Barger was not told at the time of his real condition, and the family knew that it was only a question of a short time when death would come.

Eid. Baiger would have been 69 years old had he lived until the 26th day of next December. He was born But it speaks like a silver trumpet and reared at Esto, Russell county, and was known from his early manhood to be an honorable and useful citizen, one who had many staunch friends. He was a son of Col. D B Barger, who was one of the leading lights of Russell county.

When the subject of this writing became of age, he decided to practice medicine, but after reading for several years, he gave up that idea, and decided to become a minister in the Christian Church. Just how long he preached the writer is not informed, but he knows for a great many years. He was a man of ideas and he freely expressed his opinion when necessary to make it known. He was ever ready to denounce lawlessness, standing for the right upon all occasions.

About fifteen yerrs ago he became a citizen of Adair county, besides preaching having his farm cultivated.

He was a man who will be greatly missed, and his devoted companion and dutiful sons have lost their best

The funeral services were conducted at the Christian church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Eld. Z T Williams, a lifelong friend, officiating, assisted by other ministers. There were many friends present to pay their last respects to an honorable and highly respected man.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Ores and E. B. Barger, three sisters, Mrs. Jesse L. Murrell, Mrs Sam Collins, Russell county, Mrs Josh Godbey, Casey county, one brother, Mr. Julius Barger, who lives in Anna, Texas, and who has not been in this country for thirty-five years or more.

The interment was in the city cemetery, and there were many flowers regular election day, November 1921, ing but money is still poorer.' ways and uninclosed lands of said Yet HE IS RICH precinct. Witness my hand this Sept 28th, 1921.

NOTICE.

Attest S. C. Neat, Clerk, A. C. C.

Dr. B J. Bolin, who removed to Boyle county, has returned to his for mer home, Glenville, and will resume his practice at that place. The doctor does not think there is any better territory for his practice than Adair ceptions But how often those who See my high-grade Potash Fertilizer. S. McKinley, Columbia, Ky.

For Good.

[BY A L MUZZEY.]

Ah, ye whose best endeavors By many ills are crossed, Because you are unrewarded Do you think your labor lost? The husbandman in the seed time Soweth o'er hill and plain; But another may reap his harvest And gather his golden grain. The dead rose keeps its fragrance, The warmth goes not with the sun The good that we do lives after The toils of life are done.

Courage, O, fainting pilgrim Upon the King's highway, To-morrow will be the brighter For the darkness of to-day! What if the night-time find you With Apollyon still unslain-Because you have failed to conquer, Do you think you fought in vain? What if good Christian had yielded When he lost his faithless sword-

Would he have praised his Lord? Woman, whose son has fallen In freedoms valiant fight, Question not that his sacrifice Furthered the cause of Right. A life for honor given No earthly tongue may laud, In the judgment hall of God! He with the saints and martyrs, At the marriage feast shall sit, With the name of the Lord, his Master, in His shining forehead writ. But God's ways are not our ways, And we grope with senses dim, In the blind, bewildering passes That lead us up to Him. And ever his providences Are so misunderstood. That we see in present evil No trace of coming good Do ye mind how the unbelievers Railed at the Lord that day, When like a lamb to to the slaughter,

They saw Him led away! But for the blood of His martyrs, Flowing in crimson rain, The seed of His word in darkness Forever might have lain. God, in whose reaching vision A thousand years is a day, For the good that He deviseth

Openeth up a way. And excellence is never Attained by paths of ease; We climb unto perfection By painful, slow degrees. Shall we so poor in knowledge, God's wisdom disavow? We shall know in the hereafter soothed many who had become heart sick over the ways of the world. thot w'd be so much I can not underto suffer? Was "Fannie Fern" right of heart has most of sorrow."

What we dimly guess at now.

The most audacious rogue often ac-Notice is hereby given that a poll cumulates the largest fortunes. I will be opened and an election held in hear someone say "A man without Sparksville, precinct No. 12, on the money is poor-but a man with nothto ascertain the will of the voters on True: But look how the world looks at the question as to whether or not moneyed men: Tho' he may have they wish Cattle or any specie thereof obtained his wealth by the most frauto run at large on the public high- dulent means, this being well known.

> He basks in the smiles of fortune rises in the world, tho' totally devoid of merit-and passes thro' life honored, loved and flattered. Some may say that by some they are understood. That there is always a "Hall Mark," that tells on folks But look at the churches of God! There are exceptions to every rule. And to the following there are exceptions-noble expay the most to the church are the people-giving from the purest mo- Casey county.

tives-having acquired their possess ions by altogether just dealing Or it having been bequeathed to them by honest parents.

I came across the following in an old book.

"With what grateful reverence do we, who are advancing in years look back to the teachers of our childhood! And if, perchance, there was one more faithful than the rest-one to whom it may be, we owe much of what we are today, how lovingly is his name embalmed! God bless all faithful teachers! Next to Him and our parents, do we owe them most of our full hearts gratitude."

Such is often the case, but not al ways I knew such a teacher. One pupil specially interested her. Because of her superior mind-studiousness-and lady like deportment. This teacher was willing to sacrifice time, rest, etc., for the aid of this pupil Yet her noble mindedness has been requited with baseness-her sacrifices with scorn-her fidelity with contempt and desertion. Oh the heartless ingratitude of man. I pity such.

"Blow, blow, thou winter's winds Thou art not so unkind

As man's ingratitude; Thy tooth is not so keen, Because thou art not seen Although thy breath be rude

Freeze, freeze, thou bitter sky, Thou doest not bite so nigh, As benefits forgot:

Tho thou the waters warp, Thy sting is not so sharp

As friends remembering not " To one referring to the great ingratitude shown her, someone may say, I'd think the consciousness of having done your duty would prevent this littleness on the part of some of your fellow creatures from annoying you. Far from it! There come days when the consciousness of ones uprightness-the sense of ones worth-the remembrance of his virtues-instead of soothing his distress-lucreases it There is a comfort. God is true and just. He has infinite wisdom. He knows what is best for us He has infinite power. He can do what is best for us. Yet it is hard for poor-short sighted man to "Learn to labor and to wait."

Will keturn to Columbia.

S. S.

We are authorized to state that Mr. Geo. H Palmer, of Cleveland, O., who has been in this place off and on for the last three years, will return in a very short time and will resume drilling. Mr A. T. Lowe and his son, Forest, who are experienced drillers, and who are in the employ of Mr This poem was published in Arthurs Palmer, are now overhauting their Magazine in 1863. Doubtless it has drilling outfit and will be ready for business as soon as Mr. Palmer gives the word. The driners and also Mi. Hundreds of times have I read it- Palmer, are fatisfied that there is oil sometimes being soothed by it. Some here, and they are determined to go of strong mind, and possessed a very times when I put aside the book the after it. It takes money to put down wells, but we are informed that Mr. stand. Are noble hearts predestined Palmer is in position to get all he de mands. So from this statement it when she wrote- "He who has most will be seen that it will only be a short time until the Messrs. Lowe will be again drilling in the county.

Farm Wanted.

Wanted to hear from owner of a farm or good land for sale, price rea-

L. Jones, Box 551, Olney, Ill.

Perfectly Secure.

The safety vault at the Bank of Columbia was opened last Wednesday ago. afternoon and all the inside of the safe was as bright as a dollar. The fire had no effect on the safe, except to blacken the outside. The contents were just like they were when placed in the safe The safe had a severe trial, and there is no doubt but it is a protector from fire.

ometimes these donors are worthy published in to-day's News. It is in

DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE WOMAN.

Mrs. Elizabeth Montgomery, Beloved Wife of Hon. Jas. F. Montgomery, Sinks to Rest.

END CAME AT LEBANON HOSPITAL

The subject of this sketch passed into a better world at Lebanon Hospital last Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. after a long illness. She was afflicted with gall stones and other complications and had not been out of her home, at this place, for several months before her trip to Lebanon, which was made about one week before her demise.

She had the attention of the best physicians in this place for some months, but her affliction did not yield to remedies, finally her husband and sons, with her consent, sent for Dr. McChord, Lebanon, who came down made an examination, deciding that she had an aggrevated case of gall stone. She was very weak at the time, but the Doctor, thought if she could stand to be conveyed to the hospital, then rest a few days and submit to an operation, her life could be saved; that she could not live without an operation She was willing to follow the surgeon's advice, and was at once conveyed to the hospital. She Taylor's drug store stood the trip very well, and favorable reports came from her bedside and hope welled up in the bosom of her husband and sons. The fourth day unfavorable symptoms set up, and members of the family who were not with her were called to Lebanon. Later she rallied, but really was not better, and she gradually grew worse until the end which occurred at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, as above stated. Her husband, three sons, Bruce, George and Ray, and daughterin-law, Mrs. George Montgomery, were with her in her last hours, Mr. Gordon Montgomery having just re turned home

The body was prepared for convey ance, and reached her late home, this place, Tuesday night about 12 o'clock.

The deceased was seventy years old, a member of the Christian Church, and was a native of Russell county, a daughter of Colonel and Mrs George Moore She was married to Mr. J. F. Montgomery a short time after they had reached their majorities. Mr. Montgomery being a promising young lawyer, his home being in Jamestown. They lived and prospered in this place until about forty years ago when they removed to Columbia where all ex cept their oldest children were born, Mrs. Monigomery's friends were very fond of her, as she was a woman sociable disposition. She was a good counsellor, and was proud of her children, all her sons leading honorable lives. Her only daughter, Mrs. Sallie Rowe, died a few months ago.

For nearly fifty years she and her surviving husband walked hand in hand down the stream of Time and no one but those who have given up a companion, know how to sympathize with the sorrowing husband. May God comfort him in these hours of his greatest grief, is the wish of the writ er. His little grand children can play about his knees, and in their faces he can see the counterpart cf his dear companion which indeed win bring up pleasant memories of long the residence Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and were conducted by attendance was large at each meeting. Mrs. Z T. Williams, who paid high tribute to the life and character of the departed

The remains were then conveyed to the city cemetery, her sons and son-Attention is called to the big land in-law being the pall bearers, and her ones most henored by the ministers. sale, put on by Hughes & McCarthy, grandchildren, all girls but little lames here the flowers and there buried by the side of her daughter, coal and wood men need the money.

her mound covered with fragrant flowers.

This town is in sympathy with the husband and children, who are admonished to look to God for comfort.

Delightful Concert.

The people of Columbia and the surrounding country are greatly indebted to Mr. Herbert Taylor, our Edison agent, for a musical treat on Thursday evening, Sept. 29th, at the Christian Church, Columbia, Ky. Mr. Taylor secured the services of Miss Elizabeth Spencer, who has for a number of years had her voice recorded for the Edison phonogragh, and Mr. Emil Bertl, a finished pianist, to demonstrate to the public the wonderful ability of the Edison phonograph to reproduce the human voice and musical instruments.

Miss Spencer sang with her records many beautiful numbers and it was impossible for the audience to tell when she was singing and when it was the recorded voice, unless they could see the singers. The piano numbers, artistically rendered by Mr. Bertl, were equally as hard to distinguish from the records

The church was crowded with an enthusiastic audience and it can be safely said that the entire audience was convinced that Thomas A Edison has produced a perfect phonograph. If you are considering buying a phonograph Mr. Taylor will be glad to show you the Edison at Russell &

STATEMENT OF THE OWNEB-SHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULA-TION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE published weekly at Columbia, Ky., for Oct 1, 1921,

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, and business manager are:

P. O. ADDRESS NAME OF Publisher, Mrs Daisy Hamlett, Columbia, Ky.

Editor, J. E. Murrell. Columbia, Ky.

Managing Editor, Mrs Daisy Hamlett, Business Manager, Mrs. Daisy Hamlett, Columbia, Ky. Mrs. Daisy Hamlett, Owner.

Known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders, owning l per cent or more of total amount of Tuesday. bonds, mortgages, or other securities, (If there are none, so state) None. Mrs. Daisy Hamlett.

Subscribed to and sworn before me this 30th day of Sept., 1921 SEAL: Sue H. Baker.

Notary Public Adair County, Ky My commission expires Dec. 19th.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that a poll will be opened and an election held in Montpelier Precinct No 17, on the regular election day, November, 1921, to ascertain the will of the voters on the question as to whether or not they wish Cattle or any Specie thereof, to run at large on the public Highways and uninclosed lands of said Precinct. Witness my hand this September 28th, 1921.

Attest. S. C. Neat, Clerk, A. C. C.

Members of both the Lodge and Chapter have become quite negligent in their attendance, and in the Chap ter it is often that a quorum is se cured with difficulty Work is now in progress in this branch of Masonary and every member should attend the meetings. They are all needed, and the High Priest likes to see a full Chapter The attendance is some bet-The funeral services were held at ter in Columbia Lodge, No 96, but its work would be more interesting if the Wanted.

A good second hand oil cook stove. J. W. Richards, Columbia, Ky.

Keep the home fires burning. The Directors Card to the Public. 1

Columbia, Ky., Oct. 4th, 1921. On September 27th last, just as we had almost completed remodeling our Banking house on the lot in Columbia, Ky, which the Bank of Columbia had been occupying since 1866, and running its business so successfully. fire, originating outside, completely burned out the building but left the vault and its contents in tact. We immediateley moved and began business in the Buchanan-Lyon Garage and will remain there until we complete temporary quarters on the old site, which we expect to occupy until the weather permits us, in next year, to rebuild. We expect then to move to our present quarters and to rebuild on the old lot a banking house worthy of the Bank of Columbia, the county, town and its many patrons and stockholders.

In the meantime we are prepared to and will be able to accommodate the public and our customers in the old

Everybody's interest has been and will continue to be protected.

We ask the public and our customers for a continuation of the confidence they have always placed in us. We have always tried and will continue to try to deserve it.

Our losses by the fire, outside of the necessary inconvenience caused by it, have been small.

We wish to assure the public that we still have the same vault, safe and Insurance protection we had before the fire, which is perfect protection against loss by robbery or burglary.

We wish here to extend our thanks ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST to those who so unselfishly tried to 24, 1912, of of Adair County News, save our house and to the First National Bank for its courtesies to us.

Respectfully,

W. W. Jones, President, James Garnett, V. Pres. Jno. W. Flowers, Cashier Rollia Hart, F. P. Hill,

J. O. Russell,

W. S. Hindman, All Directors.

Paid List.

The following are new paid subscribers and renewals since our issue of last

Mrs Susan Page, Mrs. Zelpah Wneat, Curtis Taylor, Mrs. M. J. Yates, J. P. Conover, V. J. Snives, L. C Breeding, S. T. White, Mrs. Carrie Walker, Mrs. Jas. Briley, J. W. Goggin, Geo. J. Hurt, J. O. Grissom, S. N. Neat, Ruby Beecham Iva Holladay, John Dickerson, G. F. Lyon, J S Campbell, Eld. Kirby Smith, Mrs. Belle Patterson, Mrs. Calvin Cox; Mrs. Lucy Wilson, J. R. Fudge, J. D. Holladay.

Partnership Formed.

Mr. J. R. Wilson, who has been in the grocery business in the north corner of the square for sometime, has sold a one-half interest in his store to Mr. Frank Shepherd, Mr. Shepherd expects to remove to Columbia as soon as he can get a dwelling; and in the meantime he will be at the store daily and will be glad to meet his friends.

Attentio.1.

We are bound to collect from former customers our unsettled accounts. We can not give further time. This is the last call we will make.

> Nell & Cheatham. 50-2t

I have 2 foot oak boards for sale at 90c per hundred. Can also furnish chestnut shingles either sawed or

R. L. Durham,

Purdy, Ky.

Miss Rachel Johnson, who was a former student in the Lindsey-Wilson, is now teaching in Gila, New Mexico. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs Albert Johnson, and is a most excellent.

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—Young Carlyle Wilburton Pale, or "Bill Dale," as he elects to be known, son of a wealthy coal operator, John K. Dale, arrives at the Halfway Switch, in eastern Tennessee, abandoning a life of idle ease—and incidentally a tide, Patricia Clavering, at the altar—atermined to make his own way in life. He meets "Babe" Littleford, typical mountaineer girl. "By" Heck, a character of the hills, takes him to John Moreland's home. Moreland is chief of his "clan," which has an old feud with the Littlefords. He tells Dale of the killing of his brother, David Moreland, years to owner of rich coal deposits, by a man named Carlyle. Moreland's description of "Carlyle" causes Dale to believe the man was his father.

CHAPTER II.—Dale arranges to make is home with the Moreland family, for whom he entertains a deep respect.

CHAPTER III.—Talking with "Babe" Littleford next day, Dale is ordered by "Black Adam" Ball, bully of the district, to leave "his girl" alone. Dale replies spiritedly, and they fight. Dale whips the bully, though badly used up. He arranges with John Moreland to develop David's coal deposits. Ben Littleford sends a challenge to John Moreland to meet him with his followers next day, in battle. Moreland agrees.

CHAPTER IV.—During the night all the guns belonging to the Littlefords and the Morelands mysteriously disappear.

CHAPTER V.—Dale arranges to go to Cincinnati to secure money for the mining of the coal. The two clans find their weapons, which the women had hidden, and line up for battle. "Babe," in an effort to stop the fighting, crosses to the Mereland side of the river, and is accidentally shot by her father and seriously woulded.

CHAPTER VI—To get proper surgical aid, John Moreland, Ben Littleford and bale convey "Babe," unconscious, to the city. Doctors assure them she is not seriously hurt. Dale meets an old friend, Bebby McLaurin, who had married Patricia Clavering. Telling his father of David Moreland's coal, the old gentleman's actions convince his son of his ather's guilt in the killing of Moreland. ther's guilt in the killing of Moreland.

CHAPTER VII.—It is arranged that Babe" is to stay with Mrs. McLaurin to be educated. Dale, refusing his fathers proffered financial aid to develop the mine, interests Newton Wheatley, capi-talist, who agrees to furnish the money. Dale realizes he loves "Babe."

CHAPTER VIII. — Returning to the Halfway Switch, Dale meets Major Bradley, lawyer, and real friend of the mountaineers, whom he engages as counsel for the company. A man named Geff, of evil repute, tries to bribe Dale with the Morelands by selling him to betray the Morelands by selling him the coal deposits, and telling them they are of little value. Dale attempts to thrash him, but Goff draws a revolver. Dale is unarmed.

CHAPTER IX.—Goff enlists the aid of a turbulent crowd, the Balls and Torreys, to make trouble for Dale's company. The Littlefords and Morelands agree to forget he old feud and dwell in harmony.

CHAPTER X.—"Babe" returns to her home, fearing she is a burden to the Mc-Laurins. Dale remonstrates, and she agrees to go back, for the sake of an aducation. Waylaid by "Black Adam" Ball, Dale fights a pistol duel with the desperado, and Ball is killed. Dale is arrested and taken to jail at Cartersville. He doesn't see how his shot could have

CHAPTER XI.-There is much speculation as to who really killed Ball, the general opinion being it was By Heck, who had constituted himself Dale's The same of the sa

CHAPTER XII. - Caleb Moreland, son of John Moreland, admits firing the shot which killed Ball, and takes Dale's place in jail. He is innocent, but takes the blame for the killing in order that Dale can continue the development of the HAPTER Xill.—On the pretext of investigating another coal deposit, Dale is decoyed to a gathering of the Balls and Torreys. They "try" him for the murder of Adam Ball, find him guilty, and sentence him to be hanged next day. He is rescued by By Heck. Goff is forced to leave the neighborhood.

that she is living with his parents and that her education is progressing. Jimmy Fayne, rich and dissolute, asks "Babe" to marry him, but she tells him she loves Dale.

CHAPTER XV.—"Babe" comes to Cartersville to attend Dale's trial. He is acquitted of the murder of Ball. Dale asks "Babe" to marry him. She loves him, but tells him she cannot be his wife.

CHAPTER XVI.

Confession,

If the impulsive, fighting Bill Dale could have heard across the intervening miles the conversation that took place in his old home the next evening, he would probably have followed Ben Littleford's daughter by the next train if he had had to hold it up at the point of an honest blue gun in order to get aboard it.

John K. Date and his wife had gone into the library with Elizabeth at her request. The three sat down facing each other. The younger woman was ill at ease; she was glad that the lights were subdued and soft. When the silence had become heavy, she straightened in her chair and blurted out falteringly:

"Bill asked me to m-marry him, and I wouldn't do it. I-I thought maybe I-I ought to tell you."

The Dales exchanged glances; then they looked back at Elizabeth Littleford. Dale smiled a fatherly smile. Mrs. Dale's eyes narrowed. The old stiffness rose within her and began to make stubborn war against her more recently acquired co

"Have you quarreled?" she asked.

"Well," old Dale said bluntly, "what's

"It isn't his fault," Elizabeth told guard your son. Bill didn't know ne was bein' followed, because Heck is as crafty as a cat. I got nervous about Bill, so I went into the laurels and followed Sam Heck. When I overtook him, he was standin' behind a clump o' sheep laurel and lookin' toward the "I whispered, 'Where's Bill?' "He said, 'Be still, Babe!' And then he thumbed his rifle's hammer back without a sound.

"I looked toward the river and saw Bill Dale a-walkin' up the nearest bank, and I saw Black Adam slip behind a tree not far away. Bill saw Adam, and he slipped behind a tree, too. Adam shot at Bill's hat, and teased Bill. Bill shot at Adam's hatand then Adam Ball jumped up groanin' like he was done for, and fell, all atwistin', to the ground. But he wasn't hit. He put his gun out by the tree to kill Bill as soon as he showed himself, It was one o' his old tricks."

Elizabeth Littleford raised her head slowly and went on in a voice that was

"I had always talked against killin', and yet I stood there and begged Sam Heck to finish him. The rest happened in no time. Ball was already a-lookin' along his sights. Bill Dale was nearly out in the open. I-" she faltered, and then came a rush of words: "I wouldn't marry him without tellin' him, because it wouldn't be fair to him; and if I told him, he-he wouldn't have me. The woman he marries mustn't be aa s-savage."

She stopped and stared at Mrs. Dale almost defiantly. Her head was high, and her hands were clasped in her lap so hard that they trembled.

"I think you have made a mountain out of a molehill, my dear," the older woman said gently. 'What you did was right, not wrong; any good woman would have done just what you did, Elizabeth, I am sure."

Elizabeth Littleford fæced Mrs. John K. Dale squarely. There was a strange glow in her eyes. "But I haven't told you everything." sne murmured-"I took Sam Heck's rifle from him, and killed Adam Ball uyseif." CHAPTER XVII.

"Will You Always Think of Me as the them. "I'm a savage," she went on

John K. Dale retired very early that night. When the sound of his footsteps had died away, his wife bent to-

"Why did you call yourself a sav-

Elizabeth told of her early life in the hills, of the feud between her people and the Morelands and of how she had hated the bloodshed. She told of the coming of Major Bradley, of her burning thirst for education, of the old trainman who had thrown her a newspaper each day, and of the coming of

"I was lonesome," she continued, and nobody ever seemed to understand how I felt. That is, until Bill

Dale came. After I met him, I couldn't see anything but him; he seemed to me

"Then," said Mrs. Dale, "why did

"Wait-you don't know it all," Elizabeth interrupted her. "There was the killin' o' that heathen, Adam Ball. I went to 'tend the trial because I knew

"Then," Said Mrs. Dale, "Why. Did

You Refuse to Marry-"

I could crear your son if Major Bradley couldn't. You see, Mrs. Dale, I happened to know who did kill Adam

Ball, and I meant to tell if it was nechad started up the river by himself. It was dangerous for him to go off like that, on account o' them Balls and Torrevs. Back in the Big Pine country

there is a tall, thin man named Sam

Heck. He's a big eater, an awful liar, and a worshiper of Bill Dale. Sam heard my father say it was dangerous, and he whispered: 'I'll jest sneak through the laurels and gyard Bill

"On the mornin' of the killin' Bill

like somethin' I'd had and lost. . . .'

you refuse to marry-"

ward Elizabeth and said curiously:

age?"

Bill Dale.

desperately-"and he isn't my kind."

in the World?" She Asked.

Finest and Most Beautiful Woman

Bill Dale Laughs.

Bill Dale sat thinking of what he had done there in the Big Pine country. From the stone-and-clay chimneys of the cabins of the Littlefords on the other side of the river the howling wind snatched sprays of blue woodsmoke. The Morelands had gone to farms lying around Cartersville in the lowland, on each of which a fair-sized first payment had been made, the borrowed capital was to remain borrowed for another year. The Morelands were already losing their outlandishness and growing into universal respect. David Moreland's dream was at last being realized.

Then Dale frowned heavily. If only he could do as much for Babe's people! But he couldn't. The men of the Littlefords still worked the coal mine. They received almost twice the customary wages, but even that wouldn't buy them farms and educate their children.

Under his eyes lay two unanswered letters from his parents. He found little pleasure in answering their letters, for he was still somewhat bitter toward them-toward his father because of his father's ill treatment of David Moreland and David Moreland's people; toward his mother because she had let him go hungry for mother-love as a baby, as a child, as a boy, and as a man; toward them both because he had been reared a do-nothing.

The door opened suddenly, and By Heck came stamping in with a gust of cold air at his back. He carried in one hand the mail satchel; in the other was his ever-present rifle. After throwing the satchel to the floor at Dale's feet, he turned to the glowing wood

"I'm dang nigh friz, Bill," he chattered. "My gosh, I couldn't be no colder'n what I em ef I'd ha' clim' the nawth pole neck-ed. Say, Bill, why'n't ye burn coal 'stid o' wood? Igod, it's hotter."

"Coal is worth money. Wood isn't." Dale ran through the mail hastily. He threw aside a letter from the Alexander Crayfield Coal corporation, which took the entire output of the mitte at an extraordinary figure, and picked up a letter which bore the postmark of his home city.

It was from Babe Littleford. Since he paid so little attention to the letters of his parents, they had requested her to write to him-they wanted him to come home for Christmas dinner. Wouldn't he come? He arose and paced the office moor for two or three minutes, then he sat down at his desk and dashed off a letter that contained only two sentences. By Heck sat beside the stove and watched his god with thoughtful eyes. He understood, he believed. How any woman on earth could turn down a man like Bill Dale was utterly beyond good-natured dog. . . . If Bill would only laugh, it would be good for him. It had been so long since he had heard Bill laugh. By Heck decided that he would make Bill Dale laugh.

him. By Heck was a great deal like a

"Old boy?" "Well?"

"Do ye want me to tell ye a funny tale?" drawled Heck. He barely heard the answer:

"I guess I don't mind, By." Heck's sympathy made him gulp. But he swallowed the lump that came up in his throat and began bravely:

"One time the was a relier hamed from ahind him.' I heard him say it, Smith. Odd name, Bill, ain't it? 'Hossfly' Smith. they called him, 'cause it "So he went sneakin' along the foot was said 'at he could easy shoot a o' the north end o' David Moreland's hossfly offen a hoss's ear and never mountain, with his rifle in his hand, to break hide on the animile. He was a hellion, too. One time Hossfly, he was a-tryin' to git app'inted the chairman o' some sort o' politics doin's, and on that same day he was a-drinkin' sort o' tol'able heavy. They agreed to make him the temp'rary chairman, but Hossfly, he didn't want that. So he hops right up in the middle o' the meet-in', and he hollers out and says: "'Feller citizens,' he says, 'I want to be the permanent chairman! I ain't a-goin' to act in the cap-acity of a durned temp'rary chairman; I absod-n-lutely ain't!'

"His old inemy, Eb Wright, he yells back and says smart-like: 'Set down thar, Hossfly,' says Eb-'you're drunk, and you don't know the difference atween temp'rary and permanent!'

"Well, they knowed Eb had it acomin' to him right then, and they listened fo' it. Hossfly, he addresses the whole meetin', and this here is what Hossfly says:

"'Feller citizens,' says he, 'Eb Wright thar 'lows I don't know the difference atween temp'rary and permanent. I'll prove to you that I do know the difference. Eb Wright says I'm drunk. I am. That's temp'rary. Eb Wright is a poke-nosed idjit. That's permanent!"

Heck finished with a lazy laugh: "Haw, haw, haw! Hee-haw, hee-haw!" "That story," Dale said wearily, "has been told on dozens of politicians. It has become a part of the history of

"Well, my gosh!" moaned By Heck. He thought deeply for a moment, decided that Bill Dale wouldn't laugh at the story of Tom Jones' pig-which had drank all of a gallon-pail of buttermilk and then gone to sleep in the self-same pail—and went on:

"Here's one, by Jake, 'at ain't been told on dozens o' politics men. And every word of it is the solemn, dyin' death-bed truth, too.

"One time I was out in the mountains a-huntin', a-goin' along slow and a-lookin' fo' a squirrel, when all of a suddent I hears a skeery noise right ahead o' me in the laurels-Z-z-z-z!

"You Scared Me, Jimmy!" Laughed Miss Elizabeth, a Trifle Nervously.

Z-z-z-z! Jest like that. I stops. I stops de-e-ad still. I looks keen. Thar was a den o' rattlers, and the very least one was as big around as my left hind laig! Then I hears a turrible growl right ahind o' me. I looks keen. Thar stands a big old she-bear with her teeth a-showin', and two crosseyed cubs! Then I hears a whine at my left. I looks keen. Thar stands a she-panther as big as a hoss, with her eyes jest a-blazin'! Then I hears a spittin' sound out to my right. I looks keen. Thar was seven full-grown wildcats, and all of 'em had been bit by a mad dawg! Some fix to be in? Yeuh; some fix!

Well, I thinks to myself. Ef I shoots the rattlers, I thinks to myself, the bear and the panther and the wildcats'll git me. And ef I shoots the bear, the panther and the wildcats and the rattlers'll git me. And ef I shoots the panther, the wildcats and the rattlers and the bear'll git me. And ef I shoots the wildcats, the rattlers and the bear and the panther'll git me. And ef I don't shoot none of 'em, they'll all git me! Some ongodly fix wasn't it, Bill? Now, how do ye reckon I got out of it?" Bill Dale only smiled. "I can't imagine, By," he said.

"I cain't imagine, neither," grinned Heck. "But anyhow, I'm alive today. Well, now that ye're in a good humor one time more, I'll tell ye some news. I hated to ruffle ye up like a yaller goose a-flyin' back'ards whilst ye was so cussed, danged blue. Bill, old boy, it ain't but five days ontel Christmas. A lot o' them Nawth Ca'liner Turners from Turner's Laurel is a-visitin' their kinfolks, the Balls, and they'll every dadslatted one of 'em git drunk on white lightnin' licker fo' Christmas, and-they'll shore think o' Black Adam. The Morelands ain't with ye no more, Bill, rickollect; only the Littlefords is here now."

Bill Dale rose and stood there staring at By Heck with eyes so bright that they sparkled.

"If they came down on us looking for trouble. I'd be a sort of clan chief, wouldn't I?" be asked. Without waiting for an answer: "I wouldn't mind hour; can you make it?"

EVERY THING IN

ROOFING

Asphalt, Gravel, Rubber, Galvanized and Painted.

Also Ellwood and American Fence.

Steel Fence Posts DEHLER BROS. CO.

Incorporated

116 Caat Matket Street Between First and Brook

Louisville, Ky.

HAIL ---FIRE

In Field. In Barn

One Insurance Policy Protects every Minute

Insured ONLY by Henry Clay Agents SEE

W. T. PRICE, Agent Columbia, Kentucky. All Kinds of Insurance

Better Be Safe Than Sorry

Those Who acted upon our advise before the Fire are GLAD; Those who did not, are SORRY.

It is too late After the Fire—Better see us before the next one occurs.

REED BROS. INSURANCEMIN ALLEITSMBRANCHES COLUMBIA, KY.

"Ef the world was made in six days by God, it shorely looks like By Heck could make six miles in a hour, don't

The tall hillman left the Moreland Coal company's office with the letter in Special attention given Disease one hand, his rifle in the other, and tears of joy in his eyes.

For Bill Dale had laughed, actually

By Heck put the letter on the train. The train carried it to Bill Dale's home city, and the postman carried it to the stately mansion of Old Coal King John K. Dale, and black Isham, the servant, carried it to Miss Elizabeth Littleford. Miss Elizabeth Littleford was sitting done on an iron settee among bushes of lifac and cape jessamine; the weather had made another of its remarkably sudden changes, and the day was sunday and pleasant. She was about to ear open the envelope when the tall, straight figure of Jimmy Fayne appeared before her. He had on riding clothes, and there was a rawhide quirt in his hand.

"You scared me, Jimmy!" laughed didn't know you were anywhere

"Beg pardon," Jimmy smiled. "May I sit down beside you?" "Yes."

He sat down beside her and began thoughtfully to flick the toe of one of his shining boots with the tip of his quirt. She knew what he had come to say, before he said it: CONTINUED ON PAGE 3

Of the 100,000 dwellings in By, that I want you to put aboard the Louisville, 60,000 are owned by sentenced to the ele Halfway switch. You've got about an their occupants while 40,000 are for the murder of Jan hour; can you make it?" rented.

Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist

Domestic Animals Office at Re ... ence, 1 mile of to i Tasi own road.

Columbia,

The Woman's To Sold Everywhere

At Pikeville, Dave

"Once more," looking pleadingly into her eyes-"won't you marry me and the lowlands for the Morelands. I can make me happy forever afterward?"

in order that Fayne might not see, accidentally or otherwise, the address. "Jimmy," she finally said, "I'd like to have a little more time to think about it. Things like this oughtn't to be decided in a hurry,"

"You've already had months! Or any man wo'th a durn, Bill." were they years-or ages? Why do you keep putting me off like this, Eliz-

"As I told you, Jimmy, I don't-" He interrupted almost sharply: "I know you don't love me. But you'll learn to-after you've seen how much I shall adore you."

He made a move as though to take her into his arms, and she shrank from him; he had done that same thing, and she had done that same thing, dozens of times before. . . . With unseeing eyes Elizabeth watched Mrs. Dale step from her motor at the porte-cochere and go into the house. Jimmy Fayne, too, saw Mrs. Dale, but he was wholly unaffected by the sight of her; Mrs. Dale, somehow, did not object to his seeing the girl quite as much as she had once objected.

"Jimmy," after a long silence had passed between them, "I-I'm afraid I ain't the right woman for you. . . . If you knew, for sure, that I once took a rifle gun and killed a man with it, would you-would you still want me?" Fayne laughed as though at a good

"You kill a man? Why, I couldn't believe it. But if you had killed a man, or a dozen men, it-it could hardly make any difference to me. If you did do it, you did it because there was nothing else to do; I'm sure of that. We won't mention it again, if you're willing. I neither criticize nor attempt to understand your hill codes. Marry me, won't you, Elizabeth?"

"If I did," asked Ben Littleford's daughter, "would you help my people back in the hills?"

"Educate 'em? Yes! Every blessed one of 'em."

"Freely?"

Once more Elizabeth Littleford tried to decide. Fayne's eyes grew more and more hopeful as he watched her lips. He became impatient.

"Tell me," he begged. The girl took up the letter she had just received from Bill Dale.

"As soon as I read this," she murmured, "I'l tell you, Jimmy. If you don't mind, please look the other way for a minute."

She tore off one end of the envelope, drew out the single sheet and unfolded it. Her eyes narrowed; her face flushed, and then became just a little pale. Her underlip quivered as she folded the sheet and put it back into the envelope.

"I can't marry you, Jimmy," she told

Without another word she arose and left him. She hastened to the house, hastened upstairs, and went to her

Half an hour later Mrs. Dale found her lying face downward on her bed, and beside her lay a crumpled sheet of paper. Mrs. Dale picked up the sheet, straightened it out, and read this, in the bold handwriting of her

"Believe me, I am very appreciative of your invitation. But I am having Christmas with your mother, here in my own country."

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Last Fight.

It was early in the morning, and Bill Dale had just sent for Ben Little-The hillman hurried to the office, for he believed he knew what was in the air. He had already gone to work at the mine, and his thick beard, his face and his hands were black with the dust of coal.

"Sit down, Ben," said the general manager. "We're going to hold a council of war."

Littleford took a chair and crossed

"Is it the Ball outfit?" he drawled. "Yes," answered the younger man, and forthwith he told the other of the news that By Heck had brought him a few days before; he had not given the matter really serious consideration until that morning. "Now," he finished, "I want to know whether you think there's any danger?"

Littleford tugged at his blackened beard and frowned. "Bill," he said soberly, "do you rickollect what John Moreland told you oncet about them Balls? He told ye 'at you wasn't safe, and 'at he wasn't safe, ontel they was dead and buried, didn't he? I believe he did. By Heck says the's a whole big passel o' them Nawth Ca'liner Turners; he's shore them and the Balls'll outnumber us more'n two to one. Yes, the's danger, Bill, and 'specially to you. They think it was you killed Adam. and they don't think the law handed 'em a square deal at the trial."

"Then listen to this plan," said

"I'll keep By Heck up the river watching for them. He will have three sticks of dynamite tied together and capped and fitted with a fuse. If he sees them coming this way in anything like a force, he will fire off the dynamite as a signal to us. Our men will gather here in the upstairs of this building, and bar the doors-"

"Oh. Bill," moaned the old fighter, "you shorely don't think we'd ever let 'em git to the doors!"

"I hope they don't, certainly," smiled Dale. "Where are your rifles,

"At the mine," said Littleford. "Ye

Dale went on: "At By Heck's signal, I'll get on my horse and ride to get them a lot quicker than I can get She turned the letter over in her lap competent help from the law. What do you think of it?"

"It's a good plan, I reckon." growled Ben Littleford, "only I don't cotton very easy to the idee o' us a-runnin' from the mine to this here buildin'. I never did like to run from

"But that wouldn't be cowardly." Dale protested. "It would be purely a strategic move, and it would save lives for us. For, when the Balls and their kinsmen come, you'll have to deliver me into their hands or you'll have to fight like the very devil, that's sure; and, according to By Heck's figures, they outnumber you more than two to one."

"All right," Littleford replied, with a shrug of his huge shoulders. "Whatever you say, that same we'll do."

So By Heck was sent for, and shortly afterward he sneaked into the laurels and went off toward the settlement of the Balls. In the crook of his arm he carried his rifle, and inside his shirt he carried three pieces of dynamite all ready for the match—and he chose every step with great care for fear of jarring the explosive too much.

He had not been gone an hour when Bill Dale heard a dull, smothered roar from somewhere to the northward. Dale sprang up from his desk, ran to his ready and waiting horse, mounted and rode like a streak toward the

Dale arrived at John Moreland's big white farmhouse a little before the middle of the day, and halloed lustily at the gate. John Moreland and his two sons hurried out in response to the call. Dale waved aside all greetings and inquiries after his health, and told that which he had come to tell. The elder Moreland turned quickly to his two stalwart sons-"Guns and hosses, boys! It'll be our last fight, and le's be at it and make it a good fight."

Less than five minutes later the three erstwhile mountaineers rode out at the barnyard gate with full belts of cartridges around their waists and with repeating rifles across the pommels of their saddles, and joined Dale. The four hastened to the homes of the other Morelands; and not long afterward the old clan, in full strength, rode toward the big, dimblue hills with Bill Dale acting as its leader. It was to be the clan's last fight, and a fight for a good cause, and every man of it was eager for

"Guns and Hosses, Boys!"

Bill Dale bore himself proudly, and he rode like a man born to the saddle. He found a queer joy-a joy that brightened his steel-grey eyes and flushed his sunburned cheeks, a joy that he didn't even attempt to understand-in the thought:

"For this one day I am a clan chief I am leading my own people against a foe, in my own country-"

And so overwhelmingly did the idea take hold of him that he wished, even then, for the repeater that awaited him at his office back in the heart of the mountains. Once his conscience asked him a question-and he answered it with another question. Was he doing that which was right? Might not the Littlefords all be killed by those drunken cutthroats while he was waiting for the arrival of a company of militia from a city miles dis-

Anyway, the militia would fight. His le. clan would do no more than that. He satisfied his conscience quickly.

When they had reached the lower end of the cleared valley, there came to them the sounds of slow firing, the firing of snipers. Each man kicked his horse's flanks and rode faster.

When they came in sight of the besleged building, they saw puffs of powder-smoke rising lazily from the upper windows and from the mountain side above and to the right. Again they kicked the flanks of their horses and rode faster.

At John Moreland's old cabin they dismounted hastily and turned their horses into the drab meadow. With Dale still leading, they hurried on foot to the river's nearest bank and went rapidly, under cover of the thickly-

CONTINUED ON PAGE 7

BIG REDUCTION IN PRICES

GGGGGGGG • 666666

PRICES ON

Chevrolet Automobiles Are Now Down.

Read the Reductions as Given by

WOOD LEWIS

490 Touring Car $525.00. Roadster 525.00. Light Delivery $525.00. They are are Durable and Easy Running.

NEW PRICES ON

BUCCIES AND WACONS.

I have a large supply of the very best makes and I am selling them at living prices. Riding and walking plows, all kinds at LIBERAL DISCOUNT for CASH. It matters not what you need on the farm, I can please you in the article and price.

I have also a Full Line of General Merchandise.

WOODSONLEWIS

GREENSBURG. KENTUCKY.

icecece o anananti

For Sale at your Dealer

Made in five grades ASK FOR THE YELLOW PENCIL WITH THE RED BAND

EAGLE MIKADO EAGLE PENCIL COMPANY, NEW YORK

W. H. Skaggs, known as Wild Bill Skaggs, the man who led the squad of moonshiners and who н. McFarland, a prohibition officer, a few weeks ago, and who later gave bond, went to Louisville last week, and mistake to argue that our sol while at the Willard Hotel he was arrested by Ellis Workman and lodged in jail, charged with shooting a government official. It is said that Skaggs has lots of money, but his money it is said will not get him out of this troub-

Figures are submitted showing that it is costing the United States government $4.50 a day for each American soldier in the that is a reasonable cost, and it and the cost would probably be larger. These soldiers are regulars. If they were not stationed in Germany they would be in harracks in the West, or some where along the Texas border, or in the Philippines. There is no reason why the troops should not be brought home, but it is a diers at Coblenz are costing us money -Louisville Post.

It will be encouraging to those who leve music to know that the fourteen Episcopal churches of Louisville went on record Sunday as opposed to sc-called "jazz" music. The reason given is that such forms of pleasure as jazz music and dancing 'lead to jazz manners and jazz morals," and we haven't a doubt that that is a army at Coblenz, Germany. But fact. The action of the church has the sanction of Bishop Woodis not as if the money was being cock and it is declared that "unwasted, for we would have to der no circumstances shall jazz maintain these soldiers at home music and dancing be permitted if they were not in Germany, in any church or parish house under Episcopal control."

The News $1.50 in Ky,

Colun bia Barber Shop

MORAN & LOWE A Sanitary Shop, where both Satisfaction and Gratification are Guaranteed

Give us a Trial and be Convinced.

W. B. PATTESON

GENERAL INSURANCE

International Made-to-Measure Clothes. Second Floor, leffries Building.

COLUMBIA, · · KY.

DENTIST

---Am permanently located in Columbia. All Classes of Dental Work Done. Crowning and Inlay Work a

Specialty. All Work Guaranteed

Office:-next door to post office.

A Splendid Offer.

Here is a proposition we make to readers who want a city paper, but do not want a daily:

We will furnish the Adair County News and the St. Louis Twice-a-week Globe Democrat for $1.90 per year, in Kentucky. To subscribers living in other States $2.40.

The Twice-a-week Globe Democrati is one of the best and newest papers published in this country. We do not know how long this proposition will hold good, therefore, if you want the papers, call or send in your subscrip-

County News Published On Tuesdays

At Columbia, Kentucky.

Democratic Newspaper devoted to the In est of the city of Columbia and the People Adair and adjoining Counties.

intered at the Columba' Post-office as secon

TUESDAY, OCT. 4. 1921.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:
n Kentucky	. $1.50
utside of Kentucky	. $2.00
All Subscriptions are due and Payable	in Ad-Vance

Democratic Candidates.

The following are the Democratic candidates to be voted for at the November election:

NOAH LOY, Representative. GORDON MOMTGOMERY, County Attorney.

EVAN AKIN, Sheriff. CHAS. F. PAXTON, Circuit Court

Clerk.

The Independent candidate for County Judge is C. G. JEFFRIES.

Hon. Lilburne Phelps, Secretary of the Republican State Committee, addressed the people of Adair county, at the courthouse, last Monday. He is opposed to the adoption of amendment No. 1, and so advised the voters. This amendment is to take the election of the State Superintendent out of the hands of the people, and let that office be filled by appointment, the advocates claiming that such an action would take the office of State Superintendent out of politics. Mr. Phelps' position is that to adopt the amendment would not take the office of Flowers. State Superintendent out of politics, that when the Republicans were in power a Republican would be named as State Superintendent and vice versa when the Democrats were in power. Mr. Phelps is right and every voter in Adair county, Republican and Democrat should cast his suffrage against the amendment. No man or woman in Adair county should fail to vote against said amendment. Let the people say who they want for State Superintendent--not leave it to a few men to say. This State has long been governed by the voice of the people and People, Miss Katie Murrell. that right should not be removed by amendment which will silence the electorate at the polls. The speech of Mr. Phelps was a strong presentation of the question, and the voters should heed his admonition. In our judment sion. Adair county is almost solidly against the amendments and will To vote. Mr. Phelps was Introduced by Hon. J. F. Montgomery, who also spoke in telling words against the amendment.

Mrs. Beulah Vance, the widow Chas. A. Vance, Nelson county. charged with murdering her husband, which occurred two months ago, has been arrested. It will be remembered that the murdered man was shot to death while Keltner country. in his bed. His daughter was arrested some weeks ago, also charged with the crime, is out on days ago. She was 70 years old, and bond. The widow will attempt was a second ccusin of Judge H. C. to swear Judge Wallace Brown Baker, this place. off the bench.-Later, acquitted.

of the Democrats in the fight for R. Rexroat, Holbart Whitehead to separate peace with Germany.

We have just had a destructive fire in Columbia, and at this season people should be more particular than at any other time of the year. There are two or three frame buildings on the square, and if any one of them should catch fire, in all probability there would be a conflagration There is generally more or less fires in the fall, often caused by the burning out of flues, hence all chimneys should be cleaned of soot before fire is made in stoves. Furthermore, people should not leave their houses at night without making a diligent investigation, seeing that a fire could not occur from the inside. If there are several persons at work in a store, let it be the business of ene to see that the fire is extinguished. With the facilities we have at this time (will be in better shape later) we are at a great disadvantage when a fire breaks out. The town as arranged for prctection, but it will be two months before the fire engine arrives. Watch your flues, thereby saving your homes and stores.

Program.

The following is the program of the Adair Co, S. S. Association, which meets at the Christian Church Saturday and Sunday Oct. 15-16. Saturday

10:00 Song, Scripture and prayer, Rev. Jesse Murrell.

10:00 The Sunday Schools of Adair county, Rev. Z. T. Williams.

10:25 What a county S. S. Association is Judge Baker.

10:45 Four Tests of a Good S. S. The Knowledge Test, Mr. Hora

The Service Test, Mrs. Williams. The Evangelistic Test Miss Eva

The Interest Test, Mrs. Woodruff

11:35 The Widening circle, Miss Mary Virginia Howard.

11.55 Announcements of Committee Offering.

Noon Recess.

1:30 Song, Prayer, by Mr. Virgil 1:45 The worship Period of the S.

S. Prof. Crockett. 2:00 The Home Department and its work, Mrs. R. F. Rowe. 2:15-3:00 The S. S. Teacher, Rev.

R. V. Bennett. 8:00 Business, Election of Officers. 3:15 Charge to Officers, Miss How-

Evening Session.

7:30 Song, Scripture and Prayer. Rev. Ashby.

7:45 The Church and the Young

8:10 Recent Developments in Religious Education, Miss Howard.

Sunday. A Mass meeting will he held Sunday afternoon at 3:00 at the Coristian Church with Miss Howard as leader, all who will taking part in the discus-

Every S. S. in the county is urged to send a representative to these meetings which are for the benefit of the county and which it is hoped will arouse an interest in the S. S. work.

Committee on entertainment. Mrs. Etos Barger, Miss Ella Todd. Miss Alleen Montgomery.

Mr. S. C. Neat, County Court Clerk, issued the following marriage licenses last week: Henry Watterson McCarrel co Miss Effie Wright. They live in the Crocus country. C. W. Whitlock to Mrs. Lula Matney, of the

Mrs O. C. Pace, of Lebanan, a native of Cumberland county, died a few

Mr. S. C. Neat issued marriage licenses, last Saturday, to the follow-Senator Borah is on the side ing: Mont E. Shrevals to Miss Susan Miss Nannie Wilson.

Proved Last Thursday Evening to Columbia

Big Audience at Christian Church Hears Elizabeth Spencer in EDISON Tone-Test

In a test of direct comparison, made last Thursday evening at the Christian Church, before a large audience, the New Edison scored a complete and convincing triumph.

Elizabeth Spencer, the famous soprano, sang in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of her voice by the New Edison To every ear, there was no difference between her living voice and her RE-CREATED voice.

This is the most drastic phonograph test known. No other phonograph has ever sustained it. No other phonograph has ever attempted it.

The New Edison's marvelous performance of last Thursday vindicates everything that has been said or claimed for its perfect realism.

Elizabeth Spencer stood on the stage next to a shapely Chippendale cabinet. She began to sing. Her golden notes soared over the auditorium, bringing all under its magic spell.

Halfway through her song she suddenly stopped singing. The New Edison, at her side, took up her song,—and continued it alone.

Singer and phonograph thus alternated throughout the song.

The only way the audience could be sure which was singing, was by watching Miss Spencer's lips,—so exactly like the living voice was the RE-CREATED voice.

Emil Bertl made the same test of comparison with the RE-CREATION of his piano selections. Again the same result there was no difference between the RE-CREATED performance and the living performance.

Proof was piled upon proof! Evidence was massed on evidence! The end of the concert found the audience absolutely and completely convinced, through its own personal experience, that there is no difference between an artist's living performance and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison, --- that listening to the New Edison is in literal truth, the same as listening to the living artists.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph With a Soul"

Only one question can still bother your mind. This question we now answer,

The instrument used in Thursday evening's tests was not a special model. It was an Official Loboratory Model, taken from regular stock. Every Official Laboratory Model, in our stock is guaranteed to sustain the same test of direct comparison with living artists.

You can have an official Loboratory Model in your home. You can own an instrument which will do eyerything done Thursday evening in the test. Come in. Hear the wonderful Official Laboratory Model for yourself. Learn about our Budget Plan, which puts our Official Laboratory Model into your home for no more than you would "pay down" for a talking machine.

HERBERT TAYLOR

COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY:

PERSONAL

.Mr. T. R. Stults has returned from a three week's stay at Louisville.

Dr. Alva Grider, of Jamestown, was in Columbia last Thursday afternoon, on his return home from Louisville He was called to the city to attend the State meeting o fOptometrists.

Eld. Kirby Smith, wife and little daughter, of Cave City, are spending a week or two with Mrs. Smith's father, Eld. Z. T. Williams. Eld Smith held a meeting at Milltown last Eld. Luther Young was in Columbia last Thursday.

Mr. J. R. Sanders, Democratic candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in the Lebanon District, was in Columbia Wednesday. He lives at Campbellsville and has no opposition from the Republican party.

Gen. Jas. Garnett, Louisville, who is Vice-President of the Bank of Columbia, arrived last Wednesday morning and spent a few days with his friends. Hel also took a view of the ruins of the bank building.

Mrs. Anna Lizzie Walker returned from Van Lear, Ky., last week. Her son, Mr. Doc Walker, met her in Louisville.

Mrs. Zora Rowe passed through Columbia last Tuesday, en route for Danville where her son, Kinnaird, is in Center College.

Mr. G. W. Whitlock, Campbellsville, was here a few days ago.

of Georgetown College, left last week, to enter the University of Illinois, located at Campaign. We understand that Mr. Holladay expects to practice law after going through the above named institution.

Mr. Isaac! Higgenbottom and two daughters, of Paintsville, Ill., arrived chase. It will not only be a protecin Columbia last Thursday and stopped with Dr. J. S. Miller. Mr. Higgenbottom left this country fifty-four

Mr. G. B. Kimbler, who was an as sistant in the post office here for sometime, and was very much liked by the community, returned to Columbia lasti Thursday night and was warmly greeted by his many friends. He has been in business in Point, Texas, Hei will probably remain in Columbia.

Mr. Claud Miller, of Campbellsville, made a business trip to Columbia last Friday.

Mr. W.T. McFarland returned from Petoskey, Mich., last Thursday night Hay fever struck all health seekers in the North this season. Mr. McFarland was attacked, and for two nights he was a great sufferer. He is much better now.

Mrs. Fred Cundiff, of Indianapolis, Ind., is visiting ther husbands parents Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cundiff.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cox bavv removed from Detroit, Mich., to Campbellsville for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Winfrey, parents of Mrs. Cox, will be at Campbellsville with them.

Mr. J. R. Cox, of Detroit, Mich, who visited here, left for his home city last Friday.

Mr. Chelsie Barger, who is employed at Corbin, came home on account of the serious condition of his grandfather, Eld. F. J. Barger.

Mrs. Jeff Godbey, and son came down Friday, to be at the bedside of Eid. Barger, Mrs. Godbey being a sis-

Mr. A. D. Patteson was at home from Saturday until Monday.

Miss Rose Heyd, whose visit was very pleasant to her many Columbia friends, left Saturday, to spend several weeks in Lebanon.

Mr. J. W. Richards, who has been in St. Joseph, Mo., for some months, returned last Friday.

Mrs. J. O. Russell has been quite sick for more than a week.

Mr. W. B. Cook was down, from Esto, to attend the funeral of Eld. F. J. Barger.

Mr. T. Earle Williams, of Burkesville, who writes the oil news for this paper, was in Columbia a few days

Mrs. W. F. Cartwright, who has been visiting in Louisville, returned home last week.

Mr. Jo M. Harris returned last Saturday, and from here he went to Georgetown on business, and from there he will return to his home, in Mississippi.

Mr. and Mrs. J D. Snarp, Amanda ville, were here Monday.

Mr. Edwin Cravens has been quite sick for a week. It was reported that he had three degrees of fever Saturday.

Mrs Fetna Eubank has returned from Louisville.

Davis, a little son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Wilson, has been quite sick for a few days. His mother, has also been sick for several days.

Town Buys a Chemical Fire Engine.

The Board of trustees of the town of Columbia have had for sometime under consideration the purchasing of a fire engine in order that the town might have protection. On account of the lack of funds the matter had been delayed, but last week, after the fire upon the square, the Board was stimulated and readily saw the necessity of purchasing an engine and apparatus, and announced that it was ready to do what it could to that end. Therefore, it stated that if the citizens of the community would pay one thousand dollars, the Board would do the rest. The Fire Marshal was here and took an interest in the town purchasing protection. In a few minutes a subscription was started, and a sufficient sum raised to justify the Board Mr. Jas. Holladay, who is a graduate to order an apparatus which is to cost

A sufficient sum has not been subscribed yet, and Mr. G. R. Reed and Mr. G. M. Stevenson were appointed by the Board to receive subscriptions. Every home in Columbia should readily subscribe to this much needed purtion in the event of fire, but will lower insurance rates. The largest amount of the money now subscribed was paid in by the business men on the square. Residences burn as well as store houses, therefore, every family in Columbia should not Lesitate to hand in a subscription.

Mr. Reed with what assistance he may take, was appointed to select a a fire company of ten men who will be in charge of the apparatus, and he will also select ten reserve men, making twenty in all, ten to be active at all times. When the machine arrives these men will go into training and will practice until they are perfect in all the details of management.

Our people certainly feel glad that this step has been taken, as it will in all probability, in course of time, save this town and its citizens thousands of dollars.

When the company is ready for practice, the State Fire Marshal will come to Columbia, give instructions and drill the boys. The company will elect, or he will be appointed by the Board, a Chief of the Fire Depart

The News endorses this action of the Board, believing that it acted wisely in purchasing the apparatus.

Hats, Hats.

Headwear that carries smartness to the extreme limit of correctness There's one for every Millinery need. Big line of girls and childrens hats. Russell & Co.

WANTED.-Chambermaid, middle aged woman, stout and healthy.

Vaughan Hotel, Lebanon, Ky.

Mr. Charles Webb, a student in his nose broken last Tuesday while engaged in a ball game. He thinks it will be all right in eight or ten days.

Our New Fall stock is arriving daily. All lines of up-to-date merchandise, prices lower than they can be bought for to-day.

Russell & Co.

For Sale.

My house and lot on Greensburg Street, in town of Columbia. The house has 7 rooms, a good well at door and good outbuildings.

R. I. Arnold.

October AMBEROL Records

You are sure to enjoy every number on the list of Edison Amberol Records for October.

Come in and hear them today!

4328 Peggy O'Neil Billy Jones and Chorus 4329 Moonlight—Fox Trot Max Fells' Della Robbia Orchestra 4330 Paper Doll—Fox Tret Green Bros. Novelty Band 4331 Down Yonder, Premier Quartet

4332 Pucker Up and Whistle—Fex Trot Harry Raderman's Jazz 4333 Idol Mine—Fox Trot Orlando's Orchestra 4334 I've Waited So Long Bert Harvey 4335 Mon Homme Fox Trot Orlando's Orchestra

4336 The Beatitudes and Hymns Rev. Wm. H. Morgan and The Calvary Choir 4337 Drowsy Head—Waltz Green Bros. Novelty Band 4338 Arrah Go 'Long With You (Do You See Any Green In Me Eyes) Marguerite Farrell 4339 Cherie — Fox Trot Harry Raderman's Jazz Orchestra 4340 The Last Little Mile is the Longest (When You're Longing for Home Sweet Home)
Lewis James

4341 Good as Gold—Waltz Wells' Della Robbia Orch 4342 Lucky Jim Criterion Quartet 4343 Rio Nights Betsy Lane Shep-bord and Chas, Hart

4345 Honolulu Honey Billy Jones and Choru 4346 Robin Adair Jules Levy's Brass Quartet 4347 Look for the Silver Lining Medley—Ihtre, "Humaning" (Piano Solo) Ray Perkins

Herbert Taylor Columbia, Ky.

Mr. G. B. Kimbler, who was a for mer assistant postmaster, this place, and who has just returned from a years' stay in Texas, is back in his old position He is very accommodating. and Mr. Mercer evidently pleases the patrons of the office by securing the services of Mr. Kimbler. Mr. Elmer Keene, who has been a very efficient assistant, has resigned, on account of ill health. It is hoped that after a rest he will be able to again enter some business in Columbia. He is a very excellent gentleman.

Type Writer Ribbons.

We have type-writer ribbons for sale, the Oliver, Remington and Smith Premier. Call while they last.

Mr. B. F. Chewning, of this place is now the great grandfather of ten children. His granddaughter, Mrs. Johnson, of Elkhorn, presented her the Lindsey-Wilson, accidentally got husband with a girl baby on the 29th of September.

Taxi Service.

We make regular runs between Coumbia and Campbellsville. Price Miller Bros. easonable.

Mr. Claud Miller, a well-known contractor, whas here last Friday, figuring with the officers of the Bank of Columbia for a new building. It will be several days before a conclusion is reached.

Mrs. S. C. Neat, County Court clerk, issued marriage licenses, last Wednesday, to Welby Holmes and Miss Ora

ANNOUNCEMENT

September 2, 1921.

Mr. Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, makes the following announce-

"We are making another reduction in the prices of Ford cars and the ford Truck, effective to-day. The new prices average $70.00 under former prices, and are the lowest at which Ford cars and trucks have ever been sold. List prices F. O. B. Detroit are now as follows;

	New Price		Old Price	Amount of Reduction
Chassis		$295	$345	$ 50
Runabout		325	370	45
Touring Car		355	415	60
Truck		445	495	50
Coupe		595	695	100
Sedan		660	760	100

"This is the third price cut during the past twelve months. On September 22, 1920, the price of the Ford touring car was reduced from $575 to $440; June 7th to $415, and now to $355, making total reductions in this type of $220, or 38 per cent. The proportionate reductions have been made in all other types. One year ago the price of the Ford sedan was $975; to-day it lists at $660 with the same equipment.

We are taking advantage of every known economy in the manufacture of our products in order that we may give them to the public at the lowest possible price, and by doing that, we feel that we are doing the one big thing that will help this country into more prosperous times. People are interested in prices, and are buying when prices are right.

"The production of Ford care and trucks for August, again broke all previous high records, with the total reaching 117,696. This is the fourth consecutive month in which our output has gone over the hundred thousand mark, the total for the four months being 463,074, which has gone a long way in making possible the present reductions. June this year, with an output of 117,247 was the previous record month.

"One noteworthy feature of our sales is the increased demand for Ford trucks and cars for salesmen. This class of commercial business has been gradually increasing the past sixty days and we interpret it as a very good sign of improvement in general business.

"No reduction has been made in the price of the Fordson tractor, and none is contemplated."

Go over these new prices! See how little it costs to become the owner of a Ford can or a Ford truck. Can you really afford to do without one any longer?

Let us tell you more about it, and advise you regarding the delivery of the particular type of car in which you are interested.

The Buchanan Lyon Co.

COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY.

Authorized Ford Agents.

One eleven Cigarettes

The Three Inseparables One for mildness, VIRGINIA One for mellowness, BURLEY One for aroma, TURKISH The finest tobaccos perfectly aged and blended

20 for 15¢

the American Robace C.

We have a good proposition to offer several live men in this section. For full particulars, address, Singer Sewing Machine Company, Danville, Ky.

Found, a gold ring. The owner can have same by calling on me and describing the same.

> Dr. S. P. Miller, Columbia, Ky.

Wheat Drill for sale. L. M. Smith, Cane Valley, Ky.

See Miller Bros and get their rates for quick and safe transportation, to Campbellsville and Columbia.

The assessed valuation of property in Adair county, coming from Frankfort, is $5,732,933.

BIG SHOE SALE NOW ON.

Over Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollar Stock.

Over One Hundred (100) Styles to be Closed Out in Thirty Days, Regardense of cost. Now is your chance to get your Winter Shoes and Save Money. and look them over, if you need Shoes you will buy. If you cannot come, phoses or write, Shoes will be sent on approval.

> M. SMITH Cane Valley, Kentucky.

Lindsey - Wilson Training

Prepares for College of Life Courses in High School, Gr-ds, Music and Expression, Athletics Rates $162.00 a Year.

Fall Term Opens Sept. 6, 1921. R. V. Bennet, Prin. - - Columbia, Ky-

Company Spectacles and Eye Glasses

Kryptok (invisable bifocal lens) Artificial Eyes

FOURTH and CHESTNUT, Louisville, Ky.

Taxi service to any place you wish to go, and our rates will be reason-Miller Bros.

Res. Phone 13-B. Business Phone 12-A Murrell -DENTIST-Office, Front Rooms Jeffries Bl UPISTAIRS. COLUMBIA, KY

We call special attention to Ladies Ready-to-Wear Department: All the latest styles in Dresses, Suits, Coats, Odd Skirts, Blouses, Petticoats, Uniterwear, etc.

Russell & Co.

Copyright, by Doubleday, Page & Co.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 3 saturating sycamores, to a point within yards of the office and suppales building. Then they made a dash the open space, and Ben Litwith one arm bound up in a restained blue bandana, opened the chemer for them.

"Two else is hurt?" panted Dale. Tattle Tom," answered Littleford, Saul. Little Tom, he got a bulwater the shoulder. Saul, he got might' nigh the same place. Times've riddled the whole t'other the house to splinters. They're samainn' fo' you."

"They'll get all they want of me," Mine growled.

we turned and ran up the rough way, and Ben Littleford and the Procedured followed close upon his At the front and side windows, anything they had been able that would stop a bullet, knelt * efords with rifles in their hands, restinady watching for a human target the samear on the mountainside above. and Little Tom lay in a corner, waste they were fairly safe from carries bullets. Hayes had bound up First wounds as well as he could with Material at hand. They were white and helpless and suffering. wat will full of the old Littleford tighting spirit.

Seize seized his Winchester and The of cartridges from the hands of the man who had brought them to and turned to the others. A bulcrashed through the wall and struck the floor at his foot; he paid was section to it.

"Masten to me, boys." Dale was making his cartridge-belt with rapid, streng Angers. "From where they are the Balls and Turners can fine by see the lower story of this Executing. We'll go downstairs, open front door, and run to the edge will the faurels at the foot of the moun-Then we'll turn to the right, wide detour, and get above Ball outfit; we'll be fighting downinstead of uphill. Get me? Are ready?"

The man, they were ready.

Tray reached the thick underwithout being seen by the en-While the Balls and Turners firmed more or less aimlessly at the tracking, drank white whisky and drunkenly for the surrender to Bill Dale, Bill Dale and his were making their way steadily wide half-circle up the side of Moreland's mountain.

Exist an hour after they had left the building, Dale had stationed his manua, deployed as a line of skirmishers, sheltering trees some two hun-Leet above the Balls and their

Winn Moreland, Ben Littleford and Dale were not far apart. "It's a same to do it," said Dale. "I swear, shoot men in the back like The state of Moreland, twisted his mouth fints a queer smile of contempt, and Ben Littleford. They knew, for better than their leader, the ways of that people without a principle. The Basic and Turners wouldn't hesitate Dor Shoot them in the back!

"Well," John Moreland replied, and se usas almost a sneer, "ye might go where and give 'em some candy, wiss 'em, and ax 'em won't they SERVEDE surrender!"

Zimie leaned around his tree, a great chestnut, and called boldly: "Lou've got a chance to surrender

Give 'Em H-I, Boys!

now-and you'd certainly better take it quick!"

One of those below yelled surprisedly: "Who're you?" Then they all whipped to the other side of their sheltering timber.

The answer came at once: "I'm Bill Dale, and I'm peeved! You're at the mercy of the finest hill clan that ever looked along rifle barrels; will you surrender, or fight it out?"

"You said it-we'll fight it out!" cried a burly cousin of Black Adam Ball, deceased.

"You're on!" growled Bill Dale, slipping his rifle out beside the tree. "Give 'em h-l, boys!"

He was unused to this sort of thing, and he was incautious. He showed a little too much of himself-there was a sudden keen report from below, and a bullet hole appeared in the rim of his hat! John Moreland fired the next shot, and he broke the right arm of the man who had just fired at Bill Dale. This opened the battle in earn-

Soon the thunder of the many rifles became almost a steady roar. The air was filled with the pungent odor of burning powder. Bill Dale emptied the magazine of his repeater, and sank behind the big chestnut to fill it again with cartridges from his belt. Bullets now whined on both sides of him; they cut greenish white furrows in the bark of both sides of the tree, and knocked up little spurts of black earth to his right and to his left: they cut off twigs within an arm's reach of him. A dozen Balls were now firing at him, seeking to avenge the death of their kinsman, the Goliath. John Moreland's strong voice came to him through the din and roar: "Don't show no part o' yoreself now, Bill; ef ye do, ye'll shore be hit!" Dale fired again, pumped a fresh cartridge into the chamber of his rifle and slipped another into the magazine, and arose behind the chestnut.

"Down, Bill!" cried John Moreland. If Dale heard, he gave no sign of it. He fired four shots rapidly, and before the wind had carried away the blinding smoke he was behind another tree and shooting toward the Balls again. Soon there came a short, loud peal of laughter from his left; he turned his head and saw Ben Littleford taking a careful aim at a long angle toward the side of a boulder. Then Littleford fired, and a puff of stone dust showed that his bullet had gone true to its mark.

"What's that for?" demanded Dale. "We haven't any ammunition to throw away!"

"Why, Bill," replied Littleford, "didn't ye never bounce a bullet offen a rock and make it go toward a man ahind of a tree?"

It lasted hotly for two hours, but casualties were comparatively few, because there was so much cover available. From the beginning the Balls and the Turners had the worst of it, which was due to uphill shooting, white whisky, and lack of the iron that makes real fighting men. The cartridges of those below were giving out; they had fired too many shots needlessly.

"It's about time to rush them," Dale said to John Moreland, who had crept up beside him.

"Jest give the word," Moreland nodded.

A few minutes later, Bill Dale sent the wings of his line down the mountainside, forming a half-circle of his force once more; then the whole line rushed, surrounded the enemy and called for a surrender.

But the Balls and their kinsmen wouldn't give in yet. They left their cover and started to run, found themselves facing Morelands and Littlefords in every direction, clubbed their rifles and fought. It was not true courage that prompted them to offer resistance thus: it was utter desperation; they had never been givers of mercy, therefore they did not expect mercy. Dale's men forebore to fire upon them, which was at Dale's command, and met them with clubbed rifles. The woodland rang with the sound of wood and steel crashing against wood and steel. Everywhere there were groans and threats and curses from the losing side, victorious cries and further demands for a surrender from the winners.

Bill Dale, ever a lover of fair combat, threw down his repeater to grapple with a big North Carolinian whose clubbed weapon had been knocked from his hands. The two fell and rolled down the mountainside, locked in each other's arms.

And then one of the Balls struck Bill Dale across the head with the butt of his empty gun, and Bill Dale slackened his arms and lay as one dead.

He was lying under cover in a handcarved black walnut fourposter, and it was night, when he opened his eyes again. Above him he saw the bearded faces of Ben Littleford and John Moreland, and they looked haggard and anxious in the oil lamp's yellow light. Suddenly Moreland spoke:

"Dead-nothin'!" jubilantly. "Look, Ben; he's done come to! Ye couldn't put him in a cannon and shoot him ag'inst a clift and kill him, Ben! I hope ye're a-feelin' all right, Bill,

Dale realized everything quite clearly. He put a hand to his head; there was a wet cloth lying over the swollen

"He shore give ye a buster of a ick," drawled a voice that Dale instantly recognized as that of his worshiper, By Heck. "Danged ef Cale Moreland didn't might' nigh it beat him to death, Bill!" Many men crowded to the bedside and smiled at him, and he smiled back at them. Soon he asked: "Did you capture the outfit?"

"Every durned one of 'em," answered John Moreland. "They're all shet up tight in the downstairs o' the office buildin', onder gyard. The' ain't but one of 'em plumb teetotally dead, fo' a wonder; but the's a whole passel of 'em hurt. I've done sent Luke to town on hossback, atter a doctor fo' you and Saul and Little Tom; and he can 'tend to them crippled Balls, too, I reckon, ef you think it's best. What're we a-goin' to do with them fellers, Bill?"

"We're going to take them to the Cartersville jail," Dale answered

"I had a different plan 'an that planned out, John," said By Heck, winking at Ben Littleford. "I had it planned out to hang 'em all on a big green hemlock as a Christmas tree fo' Bill! Some devilish rough Christmas eve ye're a-havin', Bill, old boy, ain't

"Rather," smiled Dale. He closed his eyes. His head ached, and he was somehow very tired.

Within the hour he went to sleep, and when he awoke it was daylight on Christmas morning. Ben Littleford, half dressed, was stirring the coals to life in the wide-mouthed stone fireplace. Dale felt better than he had expected to feel; he greeted Littleford with the compliments of the season, arose and dressed himself.

Littleford had just gone with a handful of kindling wood toward the kitchen, when there was a low. light tapping at the outside door of Bill Dale's room. Dale arose from his sheepskin-lined rocker before the cheery log fire, went to the door and opened it. Before him stood a siim, barefoot boy in the poorest of rags: in the pitifully slender arms there was something wrapped rather loosely in crumpled brown paper. Dale did not remember having seen the lad before, but he knew it was no Littleford.

"Come in, son," he invited cordially-"come in and warm yourself. My goodness alive, it's too cold to go barefooted like that! Haven't you any shoes, son?"

"Shoes?" muttered the boy, queerly. "Shoes?"

He was shivering from the cold. His thin face looked pinched and blue, his eyes big and hollow. Dale stooped, picked him up bodily, carried him to the old rocker he had just vacated, and put him into it with hands as gentle as any woman's.

"H-I," began the boy, staring hard-"what-"

"Now stick your feet out and warm them, son-that's it," and Dale chafed the poor little, dirty, half-frozen feet and legs.

"Son," he went on after a moment, his heart throbbing out of sheer pity, "you go to the commissary clerk and tell him to dress you up like the crown prince of England, if he's got it, and charge the same to the account of Bill Dale. It will be my Christmas gift to you, little boy. What's your

The lad turned his surprised black eyes upon the face of the big and sun-

"Are you Bill Dale?"

That which the boy said next struck

"So You're Bill Dale. Well, D- My Soul!"

the big and sunbrowned man with all the force of a bullet. "So you're Bill Dale. Well, D- my

"Don't, buddy, don't!" The boy went on: "My name, it's Henery. I come here with a Christmas gif' fo' you." He pointed a dirty forefinger toward the bundle in his

lap. "But you ain't a-goin' to git it

"Why?" Dale asked smilingly. "Why! Shoes -'at's why. H-II, did I ever have any shoes afore? Barefooted as a rabbit. That's me. Barefooted as a d-n' rabbit!"

"Son," protested Bill Dale, "you're entirely too small to swear. You mustn't do it, y'know."

"Yes," quickly, "I'm small. I'm small to my age. I'm done twelve year old. I've been measured fo' the go-backs." "Measured for the go-backs," laughed Dale, "what's that?"

"Why," soberly, "when ye grow litler 'stid o' bigger, ye've got the gobacks. Maw, she measured me with a yarn string out o' a stocking which had been wore by a woman seventythe yarn string around the door-hinge.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Chesterfield CIGARETTES

of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos-blended

"They Satisty

I'll 'gin to grow higher, or die, one or t'other, afore the string wears out on the hinge, Bound to."

Again Dale laughed. Mountain superstitions always amused him. Ben Littleford came into the room, and Dale arose and faced him.

"Do you know this boy, Ben?" "It's Lyss Ball's boy," answered

Littleford, puckering his brows. "What's he a-doin' here?" "He brought a Christmas present for me," said Dale, "but he has decided that I shan't have it." "The only Christmas present you could git from a Ball would be a bullet," frowned Ben Littleford. He stepped to the rocker and took the bundle from the boy's lap; he took away the crumpled brown pa-loaded and cocked revolver "By George!" exclaimed Bill Dale. "What'd I tell ye?" smiled Ben Lit-per-and there in his hands was a

An hour later Dale and a score of Littlefords and Morelands entered the big downstairs room of the office and supplies building. The defeated Balls and Turners lounged here and there. sullen and silent, on the rough-board floor of their temporary prison.

Dale walked into their midst and addressed them quietly.

"You'll admit, won't you, that I've got what you fellows call 'the deadwood' on you? And that it lies in my power to send every single one of you to the state penitentiary?"

"I reckon so," admitted Adam Ball's father. He was pretty well cowed, and so were the others.

"But I've decided not to do it," went on Bill Dale. "I can't forget that this is Christmas day. You may have your liberty as a present from the man you've tried so hard and so unjustly to kill. After the doctor gets through with Little Tom and Saul Littleford, he will come here to dress all your wounds; then our guards will give you back your rifles, and you may go home. I'm not asking you to promise me anything, you understand. I'm simply trusting the human heart, and I don't believe I'll be disappointed."

Dale turned to John Moreland. Moreland's rugged face wore a puzzled, displeased smile.

"If your brother David was here," Bill Dale demanded with a bare shade of anger in his voice, "what do you think he'd do about it? It's Christmas day, isn't it?"

The old Moreland chief's countenance softened; his grey eyes brightened. "Yes," he said, "it's Christmas day, Bill." He looked toward the Balls and Turners.

"Merry Christmas, gen'lemen!" he

Adam Ball's father immediately asked him for a chew of tobacco.

TO BE CONTINUED

Tom Slaughter, the notorious bank robber and murderer, is again heard from. He was on the penal farm, near Little Rock Ark. Some one from the outside slipped him a repeating rifle. He went to a window and shot and killed one man and fatally wounded two other gaurds. Slaughter was given the rifle last Sunday week. After shooting the men mentioned above, he went to another window, shot and killed another man. He then made a rush for the open, but was stopped by a lifer. He is bing the Cave City Bank,

The Greatest Phonograph takes another forward step!

MOOD MUSIC!—Mr. Edison's latest music discovery. It's a plan by which vou can benefit from good music-beyond mere entertainment.

Mood Music helps you control your mental and physical well-being. It soothes, refreshes, cheers. Space does not permit our telling more about it. Fill out the coupon and bring or mail it for a copy of the wonderful booklet, "Mood Music."

HERBERT TAYLOR COLUMBIA, KY.

3 days of Mood Music FREE!

If you do not own a New Edison we will gladly loan you one on three days free trial—so you can learn what Mood Music and the New Edison will do for you.

Europe buys grain, Europe will want other American products. Canada, by the way, is planning is planning to put up the tariff disaster,-Louisville Post.

The movement of grain bars and thus prevent America through Montreal is reported as from getting her share- It is very large and as increasing, such a foolish policy that it Europe is again in the market seems to border upon insanity. for American grain. And if If the Republican party in the nation were determined to commit sucide it could not think up to reduce her tariff so as to get a better way to do so But the all the advantages possible from country is not thinking so much an improved buying power in about the fate of parties as about Europe. And right at this mo its own fate. Something should seven-year old, and 'en she wrapped wanted in Barren county for rob- ment the United States Congress be done to avert! this terrible

Before you're a day older you want to let the idea slip under your hat that this is the open season to start something with a joy'us jimmy pipe—and some Prince Albert!

Me-o-my,

Because, a pipe packed with Prince Albert satisfies a man as he was never satisfied before—and keeps him satisfied! And, you can prove it! Why - P. A.'s flavor and fragrance and coolness and its freedom ented process) are a revelation to the man who never could get acquainted with a pipe! P. A. has made a pipe a thing of joy to four men where one was smoked before!

Ever roll up a cigarette with Prince Albert? Man, man-but you've got a party coming your way! Talk about a cigarette smoke; we tell you it's a

Prince Albert is sold in toppy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound

the national joy smoke

The Louisville

COURIER--JOURNAL

The Great Paper of the Southland

The Courier Journal is ably edited; it is sane and dignified in its handling of news: it is fearless, yet fair, in its editorial utterances; and it always will be found the champion of clean government.

The Courier-Journal surpasses all its competitors in equipment for getting the news of the day, because it has not only the Associated Press dispatches but the full wire service of the New York Times. In addition it maintains staff correspondents at Frankfort and at Washington.

No Kentucky Home Is Complete Without It

By special arrangements we are now able to offer

The Daily Courier-Journal

AND THE

Adair County News

Both one year, by mail, for only $6.00 Outside the city limits of Columbia

This offer applies to renewals as well as new subscriptions, but only to people living in Kentucky, Tennessee or Indiana. New subscriptions may, if desired, start at a later date, and renewals will date from expiration of present ones.

If you perfer an evening newspaper, you may substitute The Louisville Times for The Courier-Journal.

Send or bring your orders to the office of

THE ADAIR COUNTY NEWS Columbia, Ky.

Advertise In The News

drive.

The Interstate Commerce Comits quoto to the Burley tobacco mission has worked out a plan of pool and Boyle county has added combining all the railroads in held by the court in the examin-400,000 lbs. to the first day's the United States into nineteen ing trial for manslaughter in the Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back - especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily up-

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trou-

> ALL DRUGGISTS

Fatty Arbuckle was released on a bail bond of $5,000, being killing of Miss Rappe.

Breeding,

We are having lots of rain now and our roads are making us think of real winter.

The spelling, at this place, was largely attended last Friday night. Our school is progressing nicely under Mr. Hurt and Mr. J. E. Pulliam.

Miss Cordia Fudge is real sick at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenis Reece visited Mr. Ara Strange's Saturday night.

Mr. Jimmie Patterson of Blis spent Friday night with Mr. J M. Simpson.

Mr. J. R. Shopard, who has been visiting her mother. Mrs. R. P. Breeding, for some time, left for Nashville Friday.

Brother Reece, of Columbia, will begin a revival at Chestnut Grove Oct. 2.

Mr. G. W. Dillon made a business trip to Columbia this week.

Dr. H. B. Simpson conveyed Mrs. R. T. Baker, of Amandaville, to Louisville last week to be operated on for appendicitis. Her sister and brother accompanied her.

Mrs. Herman Yarberry is better at this writing.

Mr. W. R. Royse and family visited J. M. Shives Sunday.

Our dry goods drummer Mr. Collins was calling on our merchants this week.

Nell.

The farmers are now busy making sorghum and cutting

Rev. Lee Pendleton and Rev. Whitlock have been carrying on a protracted meeting at this place. There was one conversion and the church greatly revived.

Pauline Walker is in Campbellsville at school and James Hunter is in school at the L. W. T. S. in Columbia.

Born to the wife of Noah Jesse, a boy baby. Noah is al

Mr. Will Walker who is teaching school here is getting along nicely and has a good attendance.

Maggie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A, Reese who has been very sick, is improving at pres-

Luther Bell of this place is teaching school at Price's Creek and is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Walker visited the latters parents, Mr. and last Saturday night.

ly attended. She was born and reared at this place. We all lov- That made him become my deal ed her as she was near and dear to us but God took her from this earthly home to a better one and he doeth all things well. Peace to her memory.

Pellyton.

Mrs. Susie Sanders is visiting her son Frank, in Cincinnati.

Mr. W. O. Burton has just returned from Hot Springs Ark.

Rev. Marvin Perryman and wife are visiting relatives at Dunnville.

ers on Sept. 23, a son. Mr. J. T. Lemmon is on the

Born to the wife of Tom Sand-sick list this week.

Mr. John D. Lowe was here this week.

Mr. S. S. Goode, Berry Cox and ly.

the Wolford brothers were here this week.

Roy.

Cutting corn and making sorthum is the order of the day in this section.

The tent meeting which was conducted at this place by Rev. Hur and others closed last Sunday. They went from this place to Sano, where they will conduct a few weeks meeting.

Mr. R. A. Epperson, wife and children, who visited his mother at this place, have returned to their home at Wadsworth, Ohio.

Mr. Ulysses Cravens, who has been in declining health for so a nice mule colt belonging to that time. J. E. Bailey was killed at the same time.

Mr. W. W. Holladay has his new dwelling house about completed at this place.

Mr. B. O. Hurt attended the State Fair from this place

Misses Iva Holladay and Thelmo Burton started to Berea, Ky., to attedd school, last Monday.

Mrs. Olie Conover was very sick a few days of last week.

Mr. John Calhoun, who has been very low with typhoid fever for several weeks, is improving at this time.

My Elder Brother.

He brought me forth as gold tried in the fire,

some other,

aspire, That I might be like my elder day.

brother. There is nothing to compare with his infinite love,

est mother,

home above, He is not ashamed to be called our elder brother.

Oh, I expect to behold him with 30. these eyes,

For I love him far beyond any other, And I hold him now as life's sweetest prize, Since he has become my elder brother. And when I reach my sweet home above.

Mrs. J. S. Kinnaird of Red Lick, I want to see Him first above al other,

Leo Taylor's funeral was large- And I will praise Him there for his sweet love elder brother. Closkey Blair,

Lake City, Iowa.

Ozark.

The protracted meeting at Shiloh is progressing nicely conducted by Bro. Luther Young. Large crowds and good order each service.

visiting the formers parents, Mr. Louisville Post. J. B. Montgomery of this place.

Mr. B. B. Montgomer, Misses Lula Bailey and Maud Bryant made a flying trip to Campbellsville last week.

Mr. Hallie Huff of Louisville, was visiting his parenta recent

Mr. Malcom Leach is at for a few days.

Mr. Ollie Corbin and farming. of Cane Valley, visited the house of Mr. Josh Montgomery. Theseday.

Miss Mary Reeves has great success this year in the poultry business. She has an hands at present seventy three ducks ready for the market ...

A number of friends neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. Josh Montgomery last Tuesday evening to congratuante the newly weds. A bount with supper was served, the most amusualifeature was that the trade was lighted with the same dles which gave light for the some time, remains about the wedding supper of the bridges grandfather and grandmetter Mr. Matthew Leach had the Montgomery fifty three years misfortune to lose a nice mare ago, it being the first time when by lightning some time ago. Al- candle had been lighted

Cane Valley.

We are glad to state that: Etc. A. H. Judd who has been wereously sick is slowly improvings.

Messrs. Buck Bailey, of Okana and Bro. Nattie of Arks. visiting relatives in this places.

Mrs. T. A. Furkin, of Commebia, was visiting her Aunt, Mars. Malinda Montgomery who field and crippled herself last wesk

Rev. Owen T. Lee and water who have been with us for the years left last week for Burke sville. Our loss their gain. Wil say we never had better people Ruell Edrington is making trips to Louisville every week That I might be a blessing to with his truck.

). C. Sublett and family of For holiness of heart my soul did Louisville, were visiting here last Saturday and returned home Same-

Judd Bros, who have become working in Monticello, was ed home last week to be It is beyond the love of the fond-their father, who was sick, well return in a few days. They were And as he looks down from his highly pleased with the Wayse County people.

Born to the wife of J. Vaughan a 10 pound son, Sema-

Switzer News from where the representatives of the League of Nations have been in session, is to the effect that body not only does not propose to interfere with the Disarrance ment Conference at Washington but is preparing to defer the own disarmament plans in the hope that it may accept what is accomplished at Washington But what will Henry Cabox Lodge think of this? He haves the League of Nations so heartsly that it would not be surprising to see him make some sort we public protest against was well profiting by anything the United States of America may do. Box the fact remains that the League of Nations, through its governing committees, is showing to broad and tolerant policy standing aside to permit the Disarmament Conference to reason Mr. Alvis Montgomery and any credit that may be attained wife, of Broadus, Montana, are by working for disarmament.

> Trainmen on the railroads have deferred strike action although ninety per cent. have voted for; a walkout.

England needs 8,500,000 house to get back to the former comsumption of eggs in that co try, which was 120 per person.

Lincoln county has subscribed systems.

wiss Spencer Entertains.

Prebably a number of people who associated the recital given last Thursaight, Sept. 29, by Miss Elizabeth Speacer and Mr. Emil Bertl at the Christian church were at first puzzled disappointed when they discovera phonagraph cabinet occuping the seer of the stage.

They hardly were reassured when Mc. Emil Bertl appeared on the stage announced that Miss Spencer had green delayed and, rather than disapmost the audience, a RE-CREATION was salled it of Miss Spencer would be yed on the phonograph. Our susme ions were confirmed. We were to only a phonograph. But little we dream what an amazing miss Spencer's milian notes, emanating from the soile of the New Edison, soared over auditorium in all their beauty. denly we heard another voice, or waster the same voice, coming from is Spencer had was singing in unison with RE-CREATED self. She con amued singing while walking toward New Edison. The effect of two ces, of the same exquisite quality, from two different places, was sa seed a new sensation and brought ander its magic spell. Miss Spen cancel the side of the New Ediand during the remainder of the paused from time to time, apat random, and permitted RE-CREATED performance to heard alone. This gave an oppormanity to compare one with the other, it is no more than just to state there was not the slightest shade difference between RE-CREATED wasce and original voice.

La the course of the evening similar were made by Mr. Emil Bert! the same miraculous results. must have been a slight differwhen the artists stopsinging or playing but it was not ceable for the tone which came the cabinet was round and lussame with all of the vibrant, pulsatquality of that which came direct-Secon Miss Spencer's throat and the ment of Mr. Bertl It was only watching the singer's lips or the makes keys that one could be sure they sang or played and when takey did not.

Tais proof was convincing. If it not another proof was offered. Miss Spencer had commenced to sing one number, the lights were considered out-ostensibly so that the since could not watch the singer's 1128

It did not seem difficult to deterin the dark when the singer and when she did not. The was pretty sure about it himantil the lights were turned on and it was discovered that Miss Species was not on the stage at all and that the New Edison alone had kassa heard.

Back in the Bastile.

albert West, charged with mali shooting, who escaped from the sair county jail five months ago, caught last Thursday morning Jailer Tarter, Depsheriff Geo. Coffey and Walter Earter, started on his trail last Wednight. They went to his East in the extreme East and of this county, entered the barn found him lasleep in the second He readily surrendered and officers brought him to Columbia and landed him in jail. He did not same any arms, but cartridges were Taxad in his pocket. He will be giv trial at the coming term of circourt which convenes in Novem-

The officers of this county also went with the Sheriff of Casey councy and a man named Crockett, who is ranged with uttering a forged check was carried to Liberty jail.

Bakery Changed Hands.

Mr. Jo Nance and Mr. Geo. O. Marnes are now the proprietors of the Salumbia Bakery, having bought Mr. E. W. Bennett's interest. They will the highest prices for butter and most difficult in the Conference to and will furnish the best of get over, but Rev. Wade gets over it and cakes,

Columbia, Kentucky.

Rev. R V. Bennett was returned to A visit to our Millinery department the Church at this place. In fact, it will be nothing less than a revelation would be a hard matter for a minister Hats at old time prices now to fill his charge here. They were al. to you. so gratified at the return of Rev. T. ready. J. Wade as Presiding Elder of the Co-

> Our Mens Furnishing Department is showing the latest in Shirts, Ties, Coles Shoes Hats Clothing, etc

Millinery Announcement.

Russell & Co.

DECEMBER DESTRUCTION DE LA COMPENSA DEL COMPENSA DE LA COMPENSA DEL COMPENSA DE LA COMPENSA DEL COMPENSA DE LA COMPENSA DEL COMPENSA DEL COMPENSA DE LA COMPENSA DE LA COMPENSA DE LA COMPENSA DEL COMPEN

而而而

而而而

原

ve more

Time for Myself

Since

Fordson"

The Fordson Tractor is taking much of the drudgery out of farm life; it is solving the labor problem; it is reducing the cost of preparing land by almost one half of what it was with horses; and it is saving one third to one half of the farmer's time; and making farm life

The Fordson will run your threshing machine —and at the most opportune time for you. It will operate the milking machines, saw your wood, fill your silo, pump the water, and take

And don't forget-it will plow six to eight acres in a ten hour day, handling two plows

Thus the Fordson is the ideal year-round tractor. It will pay for its fall and winter keep in

There's a big story to tell you about the Ford-son—and a true one—come in and get the facts. Or, if you prefer, telephone or drop us a card

The Buchanan Lyon Co.

Columbia, - Kentucky.

SHINGLES

manently water-proof.

slate which is spark-proof.

The people of this community are glad that at the recent Conference

lumbia district. It is one of the

Adair County News, $1.50per. year-nicely and is doing good work.

THESE shingles do not rot, the nail heads

not dry out, curl or split, wind does not loosen that fasten them do not rust off, they do

This is because the body of the shingle is made of wool felt saturated and built up with Carey

tempered asphalt which protects the nail heads'

and makes the shingle elastic, flexible and per-

Carey Shingles meet the requirements of building laws

They are offered in red or green shades—the natural fadeless slate colors. They require no paint to keep them permanently beautiful. Place your order early.

DAVIS HARDWARE

and fire underwriters. They are surfaced with crushed care of every kind of belt work-and we will bring them to you.

Got

Fordson

$625

F. O. B. Detroit

more attractive.

many ways.

PUBLIG SALE

I will sell at Public Outcry on my farm one mile east of Ozark, on the Jamestown road,

Saturday, Oct. 15

to the highest and best bidder, on 12 months time, the following property:

- 1 team of work Horses.
- 1 registered Aberdeen Bull, 2 year old.
- 1 pure bred Holstien Bull.
- 1 Aberdeen Bull calf.
- 2 good Milk Cows with young calves.
- 3 good stripper cows.
- 3 Jersey heifers due to calves.
- 2 Aberdeen heifers due to calves.
- 9 Ewss and one extra good Buck.
- 6 Lambs.
- 8 head of Goats.
- 22 fat Hogs. 15 Shoats.
- 2 good brood Sows.
- 1 Sow and 8 Pigs.
- 1 Poland China Boar, Large Type.
- 1 Mowing Machine and Rake.
- .1 two horse Disc.
- 2 Vulcan turning Plows No. 12.
- 1 Vulcan turning Plow No. 11.

1 Riding Cultivator, six shovel.

- 1 Walking Cultivator.
- 4 Double Shovels.
- 1 A Harrow.
- 2 cultivating Harrows.
- 1 five plow Cultivator. 1 Roller.
- 1 Wheat Drill.
- 2 Wagons, size 23
- 1 Wagon, size $2\frac{1}{2}$.
- 1 Rubber Tire Buggy.
- 1 Ford Touring Car.
- 1 double set of Driving Harness.
- 1 single set of Driving Harness.
- 2 sets of Wagon Harness.
- 1 set of Blacksmiths Tools. A lot of other things too numerous to mention.

About 18,000 feet of Oak and Poplar Shipping Lumber. About 8,000 feet of shipping cull Lumber.

HURT.

J. S. Breeding, Auctioneer.

W. M. SMITH'S Splendid

SUBDIVIDED

MANARA BERETARE BERET

At Absolute Auction

On The Premises

Tuesday, October 18, At 10 a. m. Rain Or Shine.

This good farm is located in Casey County two miles from Dunnville on the Dunnville, Middleburg and Liberty Turnpike, one of the very best pikes in the county. It is close to school and churches and in one of the very best neighborhoods in the county. It is familiarly known as the "Thomas B Smith" farm. Ninety acres of this splendid farm in rich Green River bottoms that will produce anything and the 71 acres in upland has fine timber, rich coves etc.

Improvements consist of dwelling of five rooms, tenant house of three rooms, stock and tobacco barn, combined 30 x 50, good crib that will hold 500 bushels, shed attached and all other necessary outbuildings.

Fine water, good well at house, a number of everlasting springs, Green River etc. Splendid garden

An ideal location, strong, rich productive land. A Money Maker and Dividend Producer. A safe, sane conservative investment. You don't have a chance every day to buy this size farm located as well as this one on main pike, etc. Land is the fundamental of everything in God's Universe. The root of all riches. You can't eat three times a day, have houses to live in, clothes to wear, etc., without land. And there are untold millions to be fed, housed, clothed, etc., and no more dirt being made to take care of the population that is rapidly increasing all the while. Put your dollars in the bosom of Old Mother Earth and you will never have cause to regret it. Your dollars invested in dirt like this are sure to vield big returns. Mr. Smith has fully made up his mind to do BUSINESS. He is game to the core and his word is always his bond. REMEMBER OUR CONTRACT CALLS FOR AN ABSOLUTE SALE WITHOUT RE-SERVE, BY-BID OT LIMIT. He has instructed us to SELL. And the last bid on sale day is going to get a deed to this desirable property. He is leaving it Absolutely with YOU to say what it is worth let the result be what it may. Look this property over carefully and meet us there on sale day TUESDAY OCTOBER 18TH AT 10 A. M., and pound your bids at her.

ABSOLUTELY FREE. To the person guessing closest to what this property will bring we will give $5.00 in gold. Terms exceedingly easy and made known on day of sale. For full particulars, etc., see, write or phone either the owner, W. G. Smith; Dunnville, Ky., or Hughes & McCarty, Stanford, Kv. Col. J. B. Dinwiddie on the Block.

Russell & Co.